Kindle. $0.99Read with OurFree App. Mystery surrounds virtually every aspect of the Templar story, from their origins in the aftermath of the First Crusade, through their rise to supreme wealth and power - dominating medieval Europe for nearly two centuries - to their abrupt and dramatic suppression. Ferociously punished for alleged heresy and depravity at the beginning of the 14th century, their story is believed to have ended there, merely an interesting historical footnote.

The book was very elementary in its writing. I felt as if I was reading a high school freshmen's short story as opposed to reading a true author's book. The story was yet another search for a Templar treasure. It was a way for three friends to reconnect to each other. It is not a book I would recommend to an accomplished reader or writer.
